Discover the ease of working with professionals...

We personally contact your host facility and work with the banquets management and technical crews to ensure a smooth move-in and performance.

Staging: The ideal performance space should be elevated.

A Vacation for the MIND! requires an 8'X16' stage (4 standard hotel risers).

The Theatrical Hypnosis show requires a minimum 16'X16' stage setup.

For the safety of the participants, the stage needs to be clear of non-requested props, podiums and musical equipment.

Sound:

We own a state-of-the-art sound system. The sound system requires one independent 120 power source and is suitable for audience sizes of 350. We can supply sound for larger audiences by special arrangement. When sound production is provided by a technician, we simply require a two channel audio snake from the main system to patch-in.

Lighting:

We can supply lighting production for the show. Our lighting system requires a 10' space between the stage and the first audience member for the safe installation of the lighting stands. A 220 plug (stove type) at the stage site would be a benefit. When lighting is provided by a technician, we simply require a general, even wash across the stage.

“Your act certainly met our expectations and more. It was hilarious and all enjoyed your performance ... a great evening of entertainment ... very professional.”

About BlackSalt & Brenda Q.

Michael is a professionally trained actor and award winning magician. He formed BlackSalt Productions in 1985 offering the corporate market an exciting alternative to bands, comedians and technical speakers.

Brenda is an artist, model and television extra. She joined Michael as “the girl who floats on air” and soon took the stage as a performer in her own rite. She captivates the audience with charm and grace while appearing to read their every thought.

By 1992, we produced our acclaimed Theatrical Hypnosis program. In keeping with our reputation, the hypnosis show has always been suitable for a wide demographic audience and extremely funny. It has been enjoyed now by thousands.

We’ve performed on cruise ships and for hundreds of corporate events. We starred in 15 episodes of “Magic by BlackSalt”; broadcast on CTV affiliates. We annually provide the entertainment for various fund raising organisations.
